Benedictine Sister elected team member for the American Benedictine Formation Conference

CLYDE, Mo.— Benedictine Sister of Perpetual Adoration Rita Clair Dohn, OSB was elected to the Core Team Committee of the American Benedictine Formation Conference during its symposium in April at Our Lady of Grace in Beech Grove, Ind.

The Core Team consists of five people elected at the biennial ABFC symposium, according to the ABFC website. Members are responsible for organizing the symposium, coordinating staff and logistics for other ABFC sponsored programs, determining scholarship amounts and financial assistance dispersal and attending to the needs and requests of members.

Sister Rita, a native of Milwaukee, made her first monastic profession in 1971. She is the Congregation's formation director and also serves as the manager of the altar bread department.
