Stoll promoted to HR assistant

CLYDE, Mo.— Benedictine Sisters of Perpetual Adoration lay employee Pam Stoll has been promoted to serve as the Congregation's human resources administrative assistant.

Stoll, originally from Parnell, Mo., has worked for the Sisters for over two years. During that time she has assisted the finance office with income calculations, dispersing and posting of petty cash, tracking altar bread accounts and calculations of monthly bills.

She will continue those duties and has begun human resource functions such as the administration of employee benefits, new employee management and yearly evaluations.

"She has very competently performed the various duties for which she has been responsible and has gained a grasp of the multiple aspects of the department," Prioress General Sister Pat Nyquist, OSB said.

Stoll takes over from Sister Virginia Anne Argenziano, OSB, who will continue as director of Our Lady of Rickenbach.

"Sister Ginny was the first to serve as our HR director, and we are deeply grateful for her service to the department and our employees these many years," Sister Pat said.

Stoll and her husband, Paul, have been married for 22 years and have four children.

"I love working with the Sisters," she said. "They are really good to me."

Lay employee Pam Stoll has been promoted to human resources administrative assistant for the Congregation.
